Policy Spotlight

Mental Health Programs in 21st Century Cures Act
Signed by President Obama on 12/13/16

MOAR is excited to announce the implementation of new federal legislation that will make $1 billion in grant opportunities available to states to address the opioid epidemic. MA may receive 11 million dollars a year for the next two years beginning in April of 2017.

Roadways to Recovery

Where: East Boston Social Center
When: Thursday, February 2, 2017
Time: 6:30 to 9:30 pm
Light Dinner Provided

With an epidemic of opioid overdoses devastating our community, we would like to discuss ways in which help can be received.

If we know the “Roadways to Recovery”, we can all lend a hand to end this epidemic. Speakers will represent the recovery community, residential programs, inpatient and outpatient services, sober houses, coalitions, recovery coaches, and policymakers. We can educate ourselves and the public about our programs to help all understand how to get help for Substance Use Disorders.

Keynote Speaker: Maryanne Frangules, MOAR Executive Director with Jared Owen, MOAR Communications Coordinator
Dual Diagnosis and Outpatient: Kim Hanton, North Suffolk Mental Health Association
Residential programs: Patricia O’Hagan, East Boston Rehab Director
Drug Court: Thomas Tassinari. East Boston Chief Probation Officer
Recovery Coach: Anthony DeLisi
Sober Homes: Richard Winant, Massachusetts Association of Sober Homes President
Drop In Centers: Carrie Anne Salemi
Coalition: Linda Keough Vecchia: Community Action for Safe Alternatives, Winthrop
Coalition: Jenn Kelly, Chelsea Healthy Coalition
Treatment Center: Brad Greenstein, Recovery Centers of America
